MOU – DERBY CITY POLICE HUB PROJECT

Executive Summary

The City Centre Hub is a project to bring about collaborative working between Derbyshire Constabulary, the Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner, Derby University and Derby City Council. This would be brought about by co-location which would provide a greater uniformed and policing presence in the city which seeks to improve community safety by utilizing a multi-agency approach to problem solving.(the “Purpose”).

The Memorandum of Understanding (“MOU”), which is not intended to be legally binding, allows parties to record their wish to explore further collaboration in respect of the Derby City Police Hub project.
