National Anti-Corruption and Abuse reporting Service

Chief Constable Gavin Stephens of the National Police Chief Council has advised that all Chief Constables and PCC's should implement the National Police Anti-Corruption & Abuse Reporting Service following the Met's successful implementation of a London-only line.

The National Reporting line will give members of the public a fully anonymous way to report any concerns and give policing further opportunity to identify officers or staff who do not meet the standards we expect of our workforce.

NPCC completed a procurement process with the help of Blue Light Commercial. Crimestoppers were successful following an open tender exercise which saw two suppliers submit proposals, and Crimestoppers offered the best option, from both a quality and value perspective.

A route to market has been identified via the BLC Professional Services Framework reference 0113.

The Contract covers the period of 4 years from 01 February 2024. The value of the contract is £18,000.90.
