Foreword

As Police and Crime Commissioner for Derbyshire, I am here to represent the people of Derby and Derbyshire and ensure Derbyshire Constabulary deliver the policing service they expect and deserve.

We live in one of the safest counties in the country, but I am determined to make it even safer. I want the focus to be on fighting crime and improving public safety for all. I want to make sure the law-abiding citizen is at the heart of everything we do and that there are fewer victims of crime.

The purpose of this Police and Crime Plan is to challenge the Chief Constable and her hard-working team to drive out criminality and respond to the needs of law-abiding citizens in the way they want.

Before I was elected, I spent many months listening to what residents feel is important to them when it comes to policing. Since taking office in May 2021, I have consulted further with local people, victims of crime, and many organisations dedicated to reducing harm. Their views are reflected in this plan.

The public want to see more police officers in their communities. They want safer roads and lower crime rates with less anti-social behaviour in their neighbourhoods and to know that vulnerable people will be protected from exploitation and abuse. They also want to know the Force will make its funding work harder to keep them safe. Rural residents want to feel supported and listened to and to know there are enough resources to protect them and their property. People want to know that wherever they live and whatever their background is, the police response will be effective and that officers understand the impact of crime on residents and communities.

My role as Police and Crime Commissioner is to set the strategic priorities for policing in Derbyshire. This plan sets out clear objectives that put the law-abiding citizen and victims of crime at the heart of everything we do. It highlights where the focus of the Force should be and the expectation that we want to see clear positive outcomes in Derbyshire. The detailed implementation of the policing elements of this plan is for the Chief Constable to determine and I will hold her to account on behalf of the public.

This plan will be kept under regular review to ensure that it still meets the needs of the public.

While we expect high standards of service from the police, we must also make sure they are supported through strong leadership. Officers put themselves in harm's way daily to protect the public. They should be supported and given the tools and powers to protect the public they serve and to protect themselves from harm.

I have no doubt that working together with communities and partners to tackle crime, we will make a real difference and make Derbyshire and Derby safer places for everyone.

Angelique Foster

Police and Crime Commissioner for Derbyshire

Message from the Chief Constable

As Chief Constable for Derbyshire I welcome this Police and Crime Plan. It sets out a clear vision from the Police and Crime Commissioner and I have already started working with her as to how my priorities for the Constabulary align with those contained within this plan. We fight crime, proactively bring offenders to justice, and protect the most vulnerable from harm – I believe that the priorities and approach outlined in this plan will help achieve this.

Like the Police and Crime Commissioner, I am committed to ensuring a strong and visible presence of the Constabulary throughout the county. This will be through a mixture of warranted police officers and dedicated and skilled police staff who will work together to understand and respond to the needs and concerns of the many and varied communities of Derbyshire. However, in order to address the many and varied complexities of modern criminality, I will have to strike a balance between providing reassurance through visibility, and bringing to justice the most serious offenders that often work within the shadows to exploit the most vulnerable in our society.

I know that the Police and Crime Commissioner has, quite rightly, high expectations of the Constabulary, and I am confident that we will be able to meet those. My colleagues and I within the Constabulary's senior leadership team are committed to working hard to ensure that we deliver the standards that are rightly expected of us, recognising, and responding to those who may be vulnerable, for whatever reason.

I look forward to working with the Police and Crime Commissioner in the delivery of this plan, making Derbyshire safer together for everyone.

Rachel Swann QPM

Chief Constable

Policing Derbyshire

Nestled in the heart of England, Derbyshire covers an area of over 1000 square miles consisting of mining towns and picturesque villages; a vibrant City and market towns; to the wild beauty of the Peak District National Park. Its population is estimated to be just over a million and is very diverse in terms of the communities living in the county and city. Policing such contrasts presents a number of challenges. Wherever someone lives, be it in an isolated rural community, in a town or Derby City and whichever background they are from, I expect Derbyshire Constabulary to provide a response that is appropriate and of a high standard.

As Derbyshire's Police and Crime Commissioner, I will work with the Chief Constable to ensure that resources are allocated by considering the different threats and risks faced by communities across the county. There is no 'one-size fits all' solution and I recognise that this means that different communities must be policed in different ways. As Police and Crime Commissioner, I am also legally bound to ensure the operational independence of the Chief Constable is respected and maintained.

I know that police visibility is important to people, it provides reassurance and makes them feel safer. It is important that we have as many police officers and PCSOs (Police Community Support Officers) out on the streets as possible. Beyond that, I also expect the Force to explore different ways to respond to local concerns with a clear focus on prevention of crime, keeping the public safe and deterring criminal activity. Reassuring the public will also require a focus on strong and effective communication. This will undoubtedly include improving current communication channels and exploring new opportunities for engagement presented through social media and other virtual means.

Whilst no two days are the same when it comes to policing, in a 24-hour period Derbyshire Constabulary will on average deal with:

emergency calls (999)

800
non-emergency calls (101)

100 online contacts

This will create on average 600 crimes or incidents, including on average:

- 60 domestic incidents
- 8 burglaries
- 15 missing people
- 3 firearms incidents
- 138 incidents of anti-social behaviour

The Force will, on average:

- Make 40 arrests
- Undertake 6 stop searches
- Receive 1.3 million reads from Automated Number Plate Recognition systems

Currently, this workload is delivered by a team of 3,732 police officers, police staff and police service volunteers.

I know that police visibility is important to people, it provides reassurance and makes them feel safer.

Roles and Responsibilities

Police and Crime Commissioners were created by The Police Reform and Social Responsibility Act 2011 and replaced Police Authorities. The Act, and supporting legislation, outlines the roles and responsibilities of the Police and Crime Commissioner as well as the Chief Constable.

By law the Police and Crime Commissioner is required to respect the operational independence of the Chief Constable.

The roles and responsibilities of Police and Crime Commissioners are currently being reviewed by Government and there is the possibility for new, or re-defined, responsibilities being given to us over the course of this Police and Crime Plan. I will be working closely with my team, and fellow Police and Crime Commissioners to understand what these new responsibilities include and how we will deliver against them.

Threats & Risks

While developing the Police and Crime Plan, Police and Crime Commissioners are required to consider the issues and concerns raised by communities in Derbyshire as well as the professional assessment of police colleagues and other partners working in Community Safety.

Derbyshire has a well-established process for identifying and assessing risk. A partnership approach sees Derbyshire Constabulary working cohesively with other partners to keep communities safe.

The current key risks identified in Derbyshire are:

- Residential Burglary
- Rape & Serious Sexual Offences
- Domestic Abuse
- Modern Slavery & Human Trafficking
- Killed & Seriously Injured on the Roads
- Organised Crime
- Stalking
- Serious Violence & Knife Crime
- Personal Robbery
- • Anti-social Behaviour

I recognise that these key threats and risks must be addressed to keep the public of Derbyshire safe and I will hold the Chief Constable to account for delivering on them.

“ Derbyshire has a well-established process for identifying and assessing risk

Strategic Policing Requirement

Modern policing is complex and the Home Secretary has therefore placed a statutory duty on all Police Forces and Police and Crime Commissioners that ensures everyone is able to contribute policing resources towards national policing issues – this is known as the Strategic Policing Requirement (SPR).

The issues currently identified within the Strategic Policing Requirement are:

- Terrorism
- Serious and Organised Crime
- A National Cyber Security Incident
- Threats to Public Order or Public Safety
- Civil Emergencies
- Child Sexual Abuse

This list is kept under review, and there may be changes to the SPR during the lifetime of this plan that will require changes to be made to reflect new or additional SPR requirements.

As Police and Crime Commissioner I will expect the Chief Constable to produce a report once a year to provide me with the assurance that the Force is complying with its responsibilities under the SPR.

Strategic Priorities

My strategic priorities reflect the issues that residents have consistently told me are of most concern to them.

I know that the people of Derby and Derbyshire want to see the issues that matter to them being addressed effectively. They want to be safe and they want to see the police service that they pay for.

It is important to me that residents feel they are receiving value for money from Derbyshire Constabulary. Taxpayers deserve to see their contributions being used to deliver a service that meets their needs. Victims of crime must be at the centre of everything we do, and everything we do must be focussed on reducing the number of those victims.

I want Derbyshire residents to receive the policing service that they need and deserve. Most importantly, I want the people of Derbyshire to go about their daily business without fear of becoming a victim of crime.

That is why my strategic priorities provide a clear direction for policing and community safety in Derby and Derbyshire. They are based on public feedback and supported by my consultation.

The detailed implementation of these priorities will be for the Chief Constable and the Force to determine through their strategic planning, and an associated delivery plan. I will hold the Chief Constable to account for their delivery on behalf of the public.

I recognise that providing community safety is not the sole responsibility of Derbyshire Constabulary. It needs a strong commitment to partnership working with all our partners. My plan aims to embed partnership working in our day-to-day business. As Police and Crime Commissioner I will work hard to promote and encourage local communities and partners to work with us and help deliver a safer Derbyshire.

Strong Local Policing – more police on our streets and a focus on neighbourhood policing

People have told me they want:

- “Local police to get to know the area and the people. It gives the people a safer feel seeing police on patrol.”*
- “Visible presence. Pro-active community policing to deter criminal activity. Closer community links.”*
- “Visibility on the streets and in neighbourhoods.”*

This will be delivered by:

- Stronger, more effective neighbourhood policing teams to cut crime, bring more criminals to justice and keep law-abiding citizens safe
- Having additional officers recruited as part of the Police Uplift Programme
- Increasing our volunteers, Special Constables and other Citizens in Policing who provide great support to the Force and increased visibility in communities
- Ensuring officers have the training and support to use the powers that are available to them to keep themselves and the public safe (including effective and appropriate use of Stop and Search)

- Improving the 101 and 999 services but also digital and social media engagement
- An effective engagement and communication strategy to make sure local communities are listened to and priority is given to the crimes they are most worried about
- Creating greater public confidence in the police and an increase in the reporting of crime and issues of concern
- Effective policing to recognise vulnerability and deal with it appropriately
- Committing to deliver a Derbyshire Specific Violence Against Women and Girls Strategy

“ We need strong, visible and effective policing in our communities

Neighbourhood Crime and Anti-Social Behaviour – clamping down on burglary, drug dealing and anti-social behaviour

People have told me that their priorities are:

“...local residents feeling safe in their homes and out in their local area. Consistent issues around small crime and anti-social behaviour erodes this.”

“Burglary and drug dealing.”

“Stopping burglaries and anti-social behaviour. Speeding.”

This will be delivered by:

- A proactive approach to monitor levels of crime and anti-social behaviour to identify “hot spots”
- Improving the 101 non-emergency call handling performance
- The police and community safety partners working together to effectively drive down anti-social behaviour blighting communities
- The police and partners working together, using local intelligence, to tackle drug dealing and misuse of drugs
- The delivery of targeted activity designed to reduce burglary and theft
- Sustainable solutions to local issues, supporting and resourcing community initiatives that aim to cut crime
- Supporting the expansion of Neighbourhood Watch schemes across the county and city helping to keep local communities safe
- Improve communication systems to keep residents better informed of issues and police response in their local area

People have told me what their priorities are:

“More support for Community Speed Watch groups.”

“Speeding, poor and dangerous driving.”

“Cars speeding through the village.”

This will be delivered by:

- A robust and efficiently resourced Roads Policing Unit
- Supporting the Force to ensure pro-active speed enforcement activity is conducted on our road network
- A tougher approach to dangerous driving
- Creating campaigns with key partners designed to reduce the number of people killed or seriously injured on Derbyshire’s road network
- Targeted initiatives, developed with the biking community, to keep bikers safer
- Increasing and supporting volunteer Community Speedwatch to support the work of the Force
- The use of intelligence from enforcement activity, including schemes such as Community Speedwatch, to inform the work of the Roads Policing Unit
- Work with partners to deliver community-based road safety programmes
- Working with local partners to improve safety measures for vulnerable road users such as cyclists, pedestrians, horse riders and bikers

“ It is vital that Derbyshire roads are safer for all road users

Rural Crime – increase police presence with more officers trained to deal with rural crime and ensuring specific support services are available for victims

Local people are concerned about:

“Farm protection, vandalism, dog theft.”

“Theft from properties and of animals.”

“Not enough police presence.”

This will be delivered by:

- Increasing the number of staff and officers trained to tackle the specific issues facing the rural communities of Derbyshire
- Commissioning services that understand and can respond to the needs of those living in a rural setting
- Commissioning crime prevention activities for rural communities to reduce crime, trespass, and theft
- Providing additional support for volunteer schemes such as Neighbourhood Watch and Farm Watch
- Doing effective, targeted work with partners to protect the unique and endangered wildlife of the county
- Improving communication and engagement, using a wide variety of methods, with rural communities
- Improving partnership work with Parish Councils and local champions
- Increasing confidence in reporting crime and vulnerability in rural communities

“ Rural and remote communities deserve a quality, accessible and reliable police service

Victim Support and Safeguarding – ensuring all victims of crime receive appropriate support and the most vulnerable are protected

People tell me that they want to see:

“Follow up with those that have been affected. A quick visit would be welcome.”

“Personal touch with an individual officer nominated as a contact point.”

“Appropriately trained team to support people following a crime.”

This will be delivered by:

- All victims of crime, regardless of the type of crime and location, being treated fairly and to receive appropriate support from the Force
- Improving support for, and communication with, all victims of crime - including improvement to 101 and 999 systems and online channels
- Commissioning appropriate top-quality services to support those who are victims of crime and help them to cope and recover
- Joint work with police and partners to prevent violence against women and girls
- A targeted and sustained effort by the police and partners to tackle and reduce knife and violent crime
- Having a partnership approach to safeguarding children and adults at risk of exploitation and abuse, including online criminality
- Providing help for all victims of domestic abuse and violence, sexual abuse and violence, harassment, and stalking, alongside a robust approach to protection for those at risk and the apprehension of those who commit these crimes
- Increasing engagement between the police, partners, and members of the public to provide reassurance and encourage the reporting of crime
- Providing a proactive approach to reducing re-offending

“ Every single victim of crime should be treated with respect and understanding

Driving Efficiencies – ensuring taxpayers’ money is being spent wisely and resources are being managed effectively

People tell me that they wish to see:

- “Reductions in administrative overheads.”
- “Better use of willing volunteers who are already in place.”
- “More use of technology.”

This will be delivered by:

- A strong commitment to the provision of value for money for the taxpayer
- Ensuring the efficient use of resources within the police service and preventing waste or duplication
- Regular reviews of spending with frequent and timely performance monitoring
- Strong partnership work with other police forces, blue-light services, and partners to deliver increased efficiency
- Developing collaboration and co-location opportunities wherever possible
- Reviewing our police estate and working with the Chief Constable to deliver a fit-for-purpose police estate and infrastructure that aims to deliver long term efficiencies
- Efficient and effective commissioning of services
- Ensuring our contracts are robust and managed effectively
- Investment in technology to deliver long term efficiencies
- Recognising the contribution of all our volunteers and an effective attraction and retention strategy
- Re-investing savings, wherever possible, to support and improve frontline policing, cutting crime and anti-social behaviour
- Improve communication and engagement with the public wherever possible

“ We must continuously drive budget efficiencies to focus resources on fighting crime and protecting residents

There are several elements which I want to highlight in my Police and Crime Plan as I firmly believe they will require strong commitment to help the delivery of my priorities effectively. They will therefore be embedded into our day-to-day business and are as follows:

- Engagement and Communication
- Value for Money
- Partnership and Collaboration
- Victim Services
- Grant Funding for Community Safety Partnerships
- Finance and Resources
- Transparency and Scrutiny

Engagement and Communication

To serve the public and represent them effectively, I need to continuously identify the key concerns and issues for Derbyshire residents. Since my election I have continued to build upon my strong relationships with Derbyshire's diverse communities, meeting them and listening to what they tell me.

I have robust plans for community engagement in place to ensure that I meet people from all corners of the county to hear their views. People deserve to have their voice heard. They also need to understand that their opinions have made a difference and I am committed to keeping people, groups and businesses informed about the work being carried out on their behalf.

This will be achieved through face-to-face communication and engagement with the public, online engagement activities, or via printed document to ensure accessibility for all.

To boost this work, and as a firm supporter of the various 'Watch' schemes across the county such as Neighbourhood Watch, Community Speedwatch and Farm Watch, I will work to share information to help boost the number of schemes in place.

I also expect improvements to the Force's engagement and communication with the public and other stakeholders such as Parish, Borough, County and City councils, community groups, and voluntary organisations. I will share feedback from partners and communities with the Chief Constable and her team to ensure they provide a responsive service that suits the needs of the people of Derbyshire and Derby.

Value for Money

During my campaign I heard from many people about what they wanted from their policing service and one thing that I heard repeatedly was the issue of value for money. Taxpayers' need to know that the funding they provide for policing in Derbyshire is being spent wisely, carefully and to deliver on their priorities. I am the voice of the public of Derbyshire and as such will champion the pursuit of value for money in all that both the Force and my own office do.

Policing is a dynamic service; no two years are the same for the Force. As such, the Chief Constable will need to both invest in policing whilst also finding new and innovative ways of making the taxpayers' money go further. Where difficult decisions must be made, I will ensure that those decisions are being taken with the public's interests at heart and to protect the taxpayers' money.

Delivering value for money must define how we do business and it will be a key part of how I hold the Chief Constable to account on behalf of the people of Derbyshire. In setting the budget and police precept each year, I will require the Chief Constable to demonstrate to me that all efforts have been made to:

- Spend money wisely, providing more police officers.
- Find savings to fund policing before asking for more from the taxpayer
- Promote efficient processes and ways of working to avoid unnecessary cost
- Purchase goods and services at the best balance of price and quality
- Work collaboratively with partners to make the taxpayers' pound go further

To ensure that the Chief Constable and I deliver on these objectives, we will establish a Financial Assurance Board that ensures a regular oversight of policing budgets, financial forecasts and what the Force are doing to find and deliver savings and other efficiencies. The Board will ensure that the culture of making the taxpayers' pound go further is at the very heart of all that we do in Derbyshire.

As your Police and Crime Commissioner, it is my job to make sure your money is spent wisely, we have a robust budget and promote efficiencies. I take that responsibility very seriously and will use every tool at my disposal to make sure that is the case.

“ As your Police and Crime Commissioner, it is my duty to make sure your money is spent wisely. I will make sure that any efficiency savings are re-invested into frontline policing

Partnership and Collaboration

To deliver on my responsibilities as Police and Crime Commissioner, I will work not only with policing colleagues but also with a wider range of partners both in the public and voluntary sectors. This may take the form of co-designed and co-commissioned services or through the support of grassroots delivery of services through grant funding from my office. Strong and effective partnership is a cornerstone of my approach to delivering on my Police and Crime Plan objectives and ensuring positive outcomes for the people of Derby and Derbyshire.

I am determined to keep policing in the heart of the community and will explore and encourage co-locations with our local emergency service partners to maintain and increase visibility.

Collaboration with the Ambulance Service is somewhat more challenging due to the geographic area covered by East Midlands Ambulance Service. However, there are regular conversations between the Force and the Ambulance Service to explore further opportunities for closer working relationships.

I will continue to build upon this strong foundation and will work with my fellow Commissioners and Chief Constables to identify new areas for future collaboration projects.

Driving this work will be five key principles:

- Local policing remains local
- The collaboration delivers a more efficient and/or effective policing service for Derbyshire
- All areas of business are up for consideration
- Any decisions not to participate in a collaboration are reviewed regularly as circumstances may change
- The costs and benefits of collaboration are shared fairly between partners

There will be an expectation on the Force to actively pursue partnership and collaboration working with local communities to help provide community safety.

The East Midlands has a long history of collaboration between police forces (Derbyshire, Leicestershire, Lincolnshire, Northamptonshire and Nottinghamshire) across a wide range of activities. These collaborations have greatly enhanced the specialist capabilities and resilience within the region, as well as delivering significant savings to participating forces. Over the years this approach has been identified as best practice and other regions have looked to the East Midlands to understand the potential benefits of collaboration.

More recently there has been a duty on Police and Crime Commissioners to consider collaborative approaches with other 'Blue Light' services i.e. Fire and Rescue Services and the Ambulance Service. In Derbyshire this has resulted in a joint headquarters being built by the Police and Fire services as well as a joint training centre.

Victim Services

A key responsibility of a Police and Crime Commissioner is the commissioning of services to support victims of crime. These services help victims to cope and recover from their experience and are free of charge to everyone in Derbyshire.

I will ensure that Victim Services comprise an effective combination of commissioned services, which receive funding over multiple years, and grant funding which provides the money for shorter term projects.

I will continue to support a mix of providers from both national and local organisations. I want to build upon the partnership arrangements in Derbyshire which sees the public and voluntary sectors working together to problem-solve and deliver solutions.

I will work closely with other statutory partners to ensure that where possible co-commissioning and co-funding arrangements are in place to ensure best value for the public purse.

To support my commitment to openness and transparency I will ensure that all grant and funding agreements are publicly available via my website.

“ I will ensure that victim services provide the best possible support for victims of crime ”

Grant Funding for Community Safety Partnerships

I currently support local authorities with a budget of £250,000 through the Community Safety Fund. I will ensure that this funding is targeted and focussed on supporting community safety partnership initiatives that support my Police and Crime Plan.

To aid communities in delivering my priorities at a local level, a further £275,000 has been set aside per year for community groups, third sector and non-profit making organisations to apply for grant funding.

A range of resources from national/local sources of funding are used to fund community safety initiatives. Examples of how this funding is used includes community safety partnerships, youth offending services, to support local crime prevention and neighbourhood community safety objectives and various 'Watch' schemes. I will periodically invite applications from voluntary and community groups and local non-profit making organisations within Derbyshire and Derby City to deliver innovative capital and revenue projects which will leave a lasting legacy for their community.

Good commissioning involves the ability to test, evaluate and develop new service models which can streamline services and make them more efficient and improve outcomes for both organisations and service users. I will facilitate partnerships and co-commissioning opportunities between organisations to help realise and fulfil opportunities. This kind of activity will vary year-on-year and annual plans are created to summarise the key projects my commissioning team are working on.

Finance and Resources

Ensuring the efficient and effective use of all resources – human, financial and physical, is a key responsibility of any Police and Crime Commissioner. I will work with the Chief Constable to promote a culture within Derbyshire Constabulary that delivers excellent value for money to taxpayers and, where efficiencies or savings can be made, sees these re-invested into additional visible, frontline policing.

In addition, I will ensure that resources within my office are fit for purpose in terms of capacities and skills and are aligned with supporting the delivery of my priorities.

The approved net expenditure for 2021/22 is £202.630m which is funded by £124.846m of grants from government together with £77.784m from Council Tax. In addition to the revenue budget there is an approved capital programme of some £15.208m in 2021/22. Further details of the budget and financial plans are available via my website www.derbyshire-pcc.gov.uk.

Transparency and Scrutiny

As an elected public official, I am committed to the Seven Principles of Public Life, otherwise known as the Nolan Principles:

- Selflessness
- Integrity
- Objectivity
- Accountability
- Openness
- Honesty
- Leadership

In addition, I am also required to make certain information freely available to the public about my work. These requirements are set out in the Elected Local Policing Bodies (Specified Information) Order 2011 (as amended) and all of the required information can be found on my website www.derbyshire-pcc.gov.uk

A key requirement within the Specified Information Order is transparency in my decision-making. My office has developed a robust decision-making process to record decisions and the rationale. Again, this information is freely available through my website.

A fundamental duty of any Police and Crime Commissioner is to hold the Chief Constable to account for the delivery of an efficient and effective police service. To this end I will continue to hold public meetings at which the Chief Constable will provide assurance to me, and by extension the public, on delivery against the Police and Crime Plan as well as other key areas of policing. I will continue to hold regular meetings with the Chief Constable to receive up to date briefings on topical matters, or potentially, to discuss sensitive issues such as an active police operation or police tactics.

I will continue to work with Her Majesty's Inspectorate of Constabulary, Fire & Rescue Services (HMICFRS) to support their ongoing programme of national inspection and oversight. I will work closely with the Regional Inspector to ensure continuous improvement within Derbyshire.

Supporting my scrutiny processes will be the Joint Audit Risk and Assurance Committee (JARAC), established following recommendations in the Financial Management Code of Practice published by the Home Office.

In addition to my accountability to the people of Derbyshire, my work is also overseen by the Police and Crime Panel for Derbyshire. This Panel is made up of representatives from the District and Borough Councils as well as the City and County Councils sitting alongside a number of independent members.

The Panel may:

- Require the Commissioner to respond to any concerns it has
- Make recommendations on the Police and Crime Plan or Annual Report
- Veto the level of Council Tax Precept the Commissioner sets for policing (subject to a two thirds majority)
- Veto the appointment of the Commissioner's Preferred Candidate for Chief Constable (subject to a two thirds majority)

In addition to its oversight role, the Panel should also provide constructive challenge and scrutiny, promote the delivery of effective partnership working and increase accountability and transparency.
