Please note that under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 we have applied Section 40 (2) Personal Data exemption to some of the data contained within the documents. For ease of identification any redactions will be clearly marked by XXXXXXX.

Exemption

The OPCC has assessed the information requested and has determined that Section 40 (2) of the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) 2000 (Personal data of a third party), applies to some of the information you have requested.

Personal information for instance, would refer to anything which could identify an individual. The OPCC has determined that this information should be exempt from disclosure by virtue of Section 40 (2) FOIA 2000, as disclosing this information to you would contravene the first principle (Lawfulness and Fairness) as set out in the Data Protection Act.

To apply the exemption appropriately, the conditions set out in Section 40 (3) of the FOIA should be satisfied. Section 40 (3) states that where disclosure of the information would contravene any one of the eight principles in the DPA then this data is exempt. The OPCC does not believe that the release of the names and contact details or information relating to a third party would be fair or lawful under the terms of the FOIA, as the parties will have no expectation that their personal information is likely to be released for this purpose and, as such, disclosure of this information would be in breach of their rights under Data Protection.

This letter therefore serves to act as a refusal notice for this information in accordance with Section 17 (1) of the FOIA, therefore this information has been removed from the documents accordingly.

If you are not satisfied with our response to your request, under Section 17 of the FOIA of the FOIA you are entitled to ask for an internal review of our decision. Any internal review needs to be submitted within two months of the date of receipt of this response and state why you are unhappy with the response. You can submit an internal review in the following ways:

- emailing the OPCC Inbox – PCCOffice@Derbyshire.PNN.Police.UK or;
- writing to the OPCC at –
The Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner for Derbyshire

3RS By phone
– 0300 122
6000 (as a reasonable adjustment under the
Equality Act
2010).

If you are not satisfied with the outcome of the internal review under Section 50 of the FOIA you can apply directly to the Information Commissioner (ICO) for a decision. Generally, the ICO cannot make a decision unless you have exhausted the internal review procedure provided by the OPCC. You can contact the ICO in the following ways:

- online at the ICO – <https://ico.org.uk/global/contact-us/> or;
- writing to the ICO at –
