Dear

FOI 3/2021

I write in connection with your request for information processed under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 and received in the Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner for Derbyshire on 14 January 2021.

You asked the following:

I am writing to you with regard to research I am conducting for a Dissertation project to be completed early this year, in which I am focussing on the public's perception of the police and in particular any social engagement with the public that our force may currently carry out.

In my research so far I have discovered that the Police and Crime Commissioner issues online Newsletters for public viewing. In this respect may I clarify with you whether these are only accessible online, or is there a provision (either currently or in the future) to include members of the public who do not have access to the internet or social media?

In addition, if you feel you have any further relevant information, or contacts, which may supplement my studies I would very much welcome the input.

In answer to your request please see the following:

The Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner is a separate entity to the Force and you may wish to contact the Force's Corporate Communications Department who may be able to provide you with information to help with your studies.

However, I can confirm the Police and Crime Commissioner's newsletter entitled: 'Spotlight', is only produced and distributed electronically. There are no plans for this to be physically printed in the immediate future.

If you are not satisfied with our response to your request, under Section 17 of the FOIA of the FOIA you are entitled to ask for an internal review of our decision. Any internal review needs to be submitted within two months of the date of receipt of this response and state why you are unhappy with the response. You can submit an internal review in the following ways:

- * emailing the OPCC Inbox – PCCOffice@Derbyshire.PNN.Police.UK or;

- * writing to the OPCC at –
The Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner for Derbyshire
Butterley Hall
Ripley
Derbyshire
DE5 3RS
By phone – 0300 122 6000 (as a reasonable adjustment under the Equality Act 2010).

If you are not satisfied with the outcome of the internal review under Section 50 of the FOIA you can apply directly to the Information Commissioner (ICO) for a decision. Generally, the ICO cannot make a decision unless you have exhausted the internal review procedure provided by the OPCC. You can contact the ICO in the following ways:

- * online at the ICO –
<https://ico.org.uk/global/contact-us/> or;
- * writing to the ICO at –
